—Don't forget that next Monday is Igeltart's Stock Sales.

—Toilet soap from 25 cents per dozen cakes, upward, at FORD'S.

—Highest price paid for wool at the Bazaar.

—Cate's Celebrated Jeans for sale by HARDWICK & NALL.

—Ice cold soda water with any of the favorite syrups can be had at FORD'S.

—Read the new time card of the P. & E. railroad, in this issue.

—The best of groceries can be had at Williams Brothers, low for cash.

—Gents clothing at half the usual price, at E. SMALL'S.

—Mrs. Dr. Sam L. Berry is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wood English, of Cecilia.

—Harvest Tables can be had cheap, at WILLIAMS BROS.

—Boy's summer coats in great variety, at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Attention given to business at all hours, and prices to suit the times at FORD'S.

—Charity is the hand-maid of religion; advertising is the champion of success.

—Pure blood is the basis of good health; business derives its energy from advertising.

—Born in Rockport, Ky., May 16, 1879, to the wife of M. J. Reel, a pretty little girl.

—Paragon hams as nice and sweet as the name would indicate, for sale at PLATT'S.

—Another lot of those nice lace curtains just received, at Anderson's Bazaar.

—A nice lot of infants' white slippers for sale very cheap at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Bring in your sheep and mules. There will be buyers from a distance to purchase them, next Monday.

—There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip," is all we can say this week.

—Another big lot of ladies' hats on the way from Cincinnati to Anderson's Bazaar.

—Mr. H. Small, of the Trade Palace, left Monday evening, to visit his family, in Louisville.

—Mr. J. P. Yager, ex-livery stable man of this town, spent a portion of last week in Owensboro, visiting relatives.

—We learn that Mrs. Gilbert Skutman, of Pleasant Ridge, Daviess county, died last Saturday night of heart disease.

—The largest stock and the greatest variety of family groceries, all of the best quality, for sale, lower than elsewhere, by GEO. KLEIN & BRO.

—Mr. W. C. Chapman sent us specimens of his new variety of strawberries Saturday evening. They are large, juicy and very delicious.

—G. H. Barnes, Esq., of Goshen, has sent us the weights of three of his lambs little over two months old, which are respectively, 62, 60 and 75 pounds.

—Rev. E. D. Elliott, pastor of the No Creek Circuit, M. E. Church, will preach in Hartford Wednesday night, June 4th, 1879.

—Mrs. Henry Metcalf, of Slaty Ripple neighborhood, died on Saturday week, of pneumonia—leaving husband and four children.

—Lyon's Hotel is the cheapest and best to be found in town. Boarding, 60 cents a day or 15 cents for a single meal. Try the Lyon Hotel.

—Among the goods that will be opened at Anderson's Bazaar this week, are bargains in purses, fans, ties, handkerchiefs, white goods and lawns.

—Bacon of all kinds, hams, shoulders and sides, nicely and sweetly cured, for sale very low, by GEO. KLEIN & BRO.

—Tin work repairs can be done now at William Brothers. Bring on your work and get the worth of your money. Roofing and guttering done on short notice.

—Messrs. Potter and Condit, proprietors of the Saw Mill here, lost two hundred saw-logs by the sudden rise in the creek Monday night. We hope they may be able to recover them.

—We have a communication from the "victims of Cerebral Tea Trade," which is unavoidably crowded out this week, but will be inserted in our next issue.

—Cradles, (not the kind wanted by young married folks,) scythes, pitchforks, rakes and everything necessary for the harvest field or meadow, for sale at PLATT'S.

—Thomas Brothers have as full, complete and varied stock of family and fancy groceries as can be found anywhere. They sell very low for cash or country produce. Call on them, at their popular corner grocery, and call for what you wish.

—Williams Brothers have a sample Buckeye Table Rake that will deliver the gravel out of the way of the machine so that you may not stop to bind it up, but bind it leisurely. Every farmer should have one. Call and see it, or write for particulars.

—Quite a hail and rain storm passed over this place last Monday evening. The hail fell for several minutes from the size of a pea, to that of an average sized marble. We learn that the storm was much heavier north-east of Hartford doing considerable damage to the timber and the growing crop.

—Gents' hats in great variety suitable for summer wear and at bankrupt prices at E. SMALL'S.

—Wanted, all the wool for sale in the county, for which we will pay the highest market price.

HARDWICK & NALL.

—Ladies' dress goods in styles and prices that cannot be excelled by any one, can be found at E. SMALL'S.

—Scythes, snaths, cradles, &c., of good quality, at low prices, at FOSTER & HILL'S.

—Nice, tender fresh meats can be found this morning at FOSTER & HILL'S.

—The down train on P. & E. R. R. yesterday was so far behind time that we could not wait for any news brought by it.

—The eastern mail now leaves at 9 A. M. and arrives at 3 o'clock P. M. The Western mail leaves at 10 A. M. and arrives at 2 P. M.

—Mr. Stanton Edson and Miss Euphemia Parks, of color, were married at the Baptist church last Thursday evening. Rev. Jesse Munday tied the silken knot very nicely.

—Circuit Court, which had been in session here for about ten days, adjourned last Thursday night. Judge Stuart took passage Friday morning per Rice's stage for Owensboro.

—Geo. Klein & Bro., keep the best coffee to be had in the market. They have seven or eight different kinds. Try them once for coffee and be convinced of the truth of this statement.

—Why do you continue to buy worthless eastern shoes, when paying a little more you can get the best home made goods at Anderson's Bazaar. One pair will wear as long as three pairs of the best eastern made goods.

—Our sanctum was honored last Saturday by a call from Mrs. Paul, of Woodville, McCracken county, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Woodward, of Boda, who is visiting. Mrs. Paul formerly lived at Boda.

—George Chinn was arrested at Vine Grove, Hardin county, on Monday, charged with being one of the burglars that robbed Ferguson's store last Friday. Poor fellow, he has not been out of the penitentiary more than a month. He is a native of this county.

—Messrs. James A. Thomas and F. E. Kimbley, under the firm name of Thomas & Kimbley, are opening a drug store in the house between Rosenberg & Bro's and Foster & Hill's. They will be ready for business soon.

—We called on Chris. Schapmier, boot and shoe maker, yesterday, for an advertisement, but he was so busy at work for his customers and had so much work to do to fill orders, that he had no time to advertise. He does good work at fair rates and hence, is always busy.

—J. L. Maury, of Allensville, Logan county, has been engaged to cover the Hartford Water Mills with tin roofing. He has also some other work engaged, and while here will do any work in that line entrusted to him, in the best style, at reasonable prices.

—The Campbell is coming, ho, ho, has been the song of the Herald corps, for several months past.

—The Campbell is running, ho, ho, is the song now. It is a new genuine Campbell Cylinder Printing Press, 32 by 48 inches, capable of doing neat, nice and excellent work.

—Lincoln McHenry, of color, was tried before his honor, Judge Cummins, last Saturday for disturbing religious worship and fined $20. He failed to pay or replevy, consequently marshal Hardwick marched him over to Castle Sullenger yesterday morning where he will board until he pays the debt at hard labor.

—The St. Nicholas Restaurant in Hartford, is one of the best places in the Green River Country, to get a good meal. We are not guessing at it, but speak by the card, for we have tried it. Everything the market affords served up in the most palatable manner, is always found in abundance, at the St. Nicholas.

—The Baptist Church at Roseville, will dedicate their house of worship the third Sabbath in June. A number of ministers will be present and take part in the exercises. The sermon will be preached by Rev. J. D. Arnold, of Owensboro, Ky. A large attendance is desired, and dinner will be provided for all. Come brethren and friends and enjoy the meeting with us.

C. B. PHILLIPS, Pastor.

—It is no longer a question of debate, Public opinion has said that E. Small's Trade Palace keeps the largest stock, most stylish, greatest variety and best quality of goods, of all kinds to be found in Ohio county. They do not ask you to take the word of any one, but call yourself and be convinced.

—They tell us so and if true just step in and see the bridal presents that W. H. Edson has just received and which he will sell cheap.

—Married by Elder J. W. Keown, on the 8th ultimo, at the residence of Mr. Willis, in Edmonson county, Mr. B. F. Sandefer and Miss Lucretia Doll, both of Edmonson county. On the 10th ultimo by same, at V. P. Neal's, in Butler county, Mr. Lewis James and Miss Lucy Neal, both of Butler county. On the 11th of May, by same, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. A. V. Day, in Grayson county, Mr. Eli S. Allen of Ohio county, and Miss Mary E. Day, of Grayson county.

—True charity is always rewarded. About a year ago Mr. R. N. Duke, living in the neighborhood of Concord church, lost his dwelling and all his household goods by fire. Among the articles contributed for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Duke, was that of a bed quilt by Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Stevens, of Sulphur Springs. About three months ago, Mr. Stevens met with the same misfortune—losing his house and everything in it by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Duke hearing of his misfortune, and remembering their kindness, sent the same quilt back to them.

—The wife of I. M. Bennett, we are glad to learn is recovering.

—If you have not sold your 1878 tobacco crop, bring it to Chapman & Hines, at Hartford, and get the money for it.

—The hotel now occupied by Mr. Milligan Wright, caught fire last Thursday evening and created considerable excitement, but was soon extinguished without loss.

—Do not forget that H. Weinheimer is still in the trade and sells you clocks, watches and jewelry, at prices, quality considered, as low as the lowest. He does all kinds of repairing with skill and dispatch.

—Died—in Hardinsburg, Tuesday, the 24th instant, Mrs. D. Rusher, after an illness of about ten days. Mrs. Rusher was sister of Mrs. H. D. McHenry, of this place, who, in company with her son, Godfrey, reached Hardinsburg about an hour after her death.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dan F. Tracy, Esq., left last Sunday for a short trip to Morgantown.

Mrs. Capt. Sam K. Cox and family, are visiting relatives in Owensboro.

Mr. John C. Thomas has been nursing a very sore finger for the past week.

Mr. B. T. Lawrence, of Rosine, has taken a position in the office of Wright's Hotel.

Miss Callie Nichols, of South Carrollton, is visiting her cousin, Miss Dentie Phillips, near town.

Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin, of this place, returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Elizabethtown.

Mr. Gross Williams, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. D. E. Thomas, spent several days in Owensboro last week.

We had the pleasure last Saturday, of a call from Mr. Eugene Maddox and wife, of the McHenry neighborhood.

Rev. T. J. Randolph and family, accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Barrett spent last Sabbath in the Liberty neighborhood.

Misses Katie Hardwick and Maggie Moseley, of this place, made a short visit to Owensboro last week—returning Friday evening.

Miss Emma Phillips, daughter of our worthy sheriff, Mr. C. W. Phillips, returned Monday from a week's visit to relatives in Spring Lake, Ky.

Hon. H. D. McHenry, Capt. Sam K. Cox, Dr. Sam L. Berry and Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin, were among those attending the Louisville races, from this place, last week.

Thanks to Mrs. Jos. T. Benton for a nice meal of her new crop of Irish potatoes, yesterday. They are very large and fine for the season—in fact the largest we have seen or heard of this year.

Mr. Teeter, of Louisville, representing the patent "Boss" coffee pot, spent several days in our midst last week. Mr. Teeter sold the right of this county to Messrs. Hines and Lawrence.

Mrs. Lena Coyle, who has been sojourning in Hartford for several months past, the guest of her brothers, Messrs. George and J. M. Klein, returned to her home in Louisville last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Hardwick and daughter, Maggie, left yesterday morning for Lincoln, Ill., to visit their relatives, Mr. Larkin Nall, and others. We wish them a pleasant visit and safe return.

Mr. Henry Small left for Louisville, last Monday. Mr. Larkin Griffin is assisting Mr. L. P. Foreman to run the Trade Palace, while the Messrs. Small are absent.

One of the best physicians and surgeons in the country, is Dr. Joe T. Miller. He removed from the back part of Mrs. John Shown's head, last week, a cystic tumor as large as an ordinary hen's egg. Mrs. Shown bore the suffering bravely and is now rapidly recovering.

C. M. Pendleton was granted license, at our recent Circuit Court, to practice law. His license was granted by Messrs. J. E. Fogle and C. W. Massie and approved by Judge James Stuart.

Mr. Pendleton is the son of Dr. J. E. Pendleton, and is quite a clever, worthy young man.

Mr. Charles McCann, from the Franklin Type Foundry, Cincinnati, Ohio, reached here last Saturday, and has set up and started our power press to running. He will leave for home this morning. We have found him to be a first-class machinist, a pleasant gentleman and unquestionably represents a first-class firm.

Our young friend, Armistead Jones, Esq., of this place, spent several days in Litchfield, last week, attending Criminal Court. Mr. Jones obtained license to practice law while there. The Judge appointed Messrs. T. R. McKeith and Wm. R. Haynes, examiners, who after a thorough criticism, tendered him his license, which was approved by Judge John Allen Murray. License granted by those gentlemen is quite a recommendation to Mr. Jones, as they are leading lawyers of the Litchfield bar.

Temperance Lecture at Rosine.

T. B. Demaree, Grand Worthy Chief Templar of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, I. O. G. T., will lecture in Rosine on Sunday June 8th, 1879. He desires a large audience, and will be thankful for some resident of Rosine to make necessary arrangements for a house, &c.

Burglary.

Burglars entered the storehouse of Sam Ferguson, at Ferguson's Station, on the P. & E. R. R., last Thursday night, and stole a lot of goods of different kinds, amounting to $150.

The Last Call Without Money.

Those owing me must call and pay me at once, I cannot and will not wait longer. If you fail to heed this notice the Sheriff, Constable or Town Marshal will visit you. Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN.

Arrested for Robbery.

Hardin Esparizer was arrested a few days since, in Bartlett's precinct, by officer J. B. Whelan, of Whitesville, Daviess county, under a bench warrant from Nelson county. He was delivered over to G. W. Hunter, Marshal of Bardtown, who left Owensboro with his prisoner last Sunday week.

Death of Leander M. Phillips.

Leander M. Phillips was born near Goshen church, Ohio county, October, 1816.

He spent the prime of his life as a teacher, having taught in many localities in this and surrounding counties.

He settled down in Hopkins county, or about the year 1853, where he has since lived. His death occurred May 12, 1879, caused by erysipelas. He was well-known and highly esteemed in this community. He leaves a wife, but no children. He made a profession of religion, some seven years before his death.

Muhlenberg Musings.

GREENVILLE, May 23.

Editor Herald:—

After an absence of nearly four weeks, I again resume my place in your column. I have been absent from this place, since my last, I have seen, heard and taken in more than I can, by any means, communicate or would be proping to occupy a place in the column of a local newspaper as news. I was at the great Democratic Pow-wow, May 1st, at Louisville, and must say I never saw as much of the "old man" as I did there. I saw the Superintendent of Public Instruction and Register of the Land Office. That there were complete sell-outs of nomination tickets, I do not doubt, it was open, palpable and should in future consign to oblivion the party to the transaction, it is unbecoming in aspirants for nomination to be guilty of such practices, and those who indulge in this should be buried so low, in party estimation that the hand of political resurrection would never reach them.

I extended my visit beyond Louisville, and was in the heart of the Blue Grass region, but saw nothing that would be of interest to my readers. I saw a number of the farming interests were suffering very much, the crops were behind, grass and wheat cut short for want of rain.

In this immediate section there is no news that I have been able to gather since my return. I had expected to be at your court, but my health home in mind, and very much regret it, having anticipated a good time, but the best laid schemes of men and mice "aft" gang aches.

I have been asked several times if I had quit writing letters for your paper. I take this method of informing your Muhlenberg readers that I will health permitting, try to keep up a regular letter in your paper weekly until the end of the year, will thank any one for any item of news in the county, if it is furnished, will send it to the Herald promptly.

Our Funding Board met again last Tuesday, and resolved to offer 20 cents on the dollar as a compromise of the debt, and to issue a new bond at 30 cents for the face of the bond, and 30 cents for the interest accrued since the county quit paying the interest, it amounts to about 40 per cent. It has been five years, last Sept. next, since any interest was paid, a 100 dollar bond has 35 per cent accrued interest, making $135, which at 20 cents on the $100 will make the bond worth $27.00. They resolved to publish this offer, whether it accomplishes anything remains to be seen, we hope it will, if accepted, will give us relief, if not, what is to become of us financially the "good Lord only knows."

The legislative body has called a delegate convention to meet in this place on the 1st Monday in June to settle the question. The Democrats in the several districts in the county, met on Saturday, May 31st, to appoint delegates to the convention on June 1st, at this place. Who will be the lucky one is uncertain, until a few days ago there were but two candidates seeking the nomination, David Roll, of Paradise district, and Charles F. Wine of this place. It was thought the race would be close, but now another, an old wheel-horse, a but out of Democracy in the county, has announced himself a candidate. I refer to Judge Wm. G. Jones, he is a man of ability and sterling integrity and would amply represent the interest of the people. While I say this for Judge Jones, he is not the only one of the others, either of whom would "fill the measure" of an able representative. Since the late rains our crop prospects are very promising. The seed time is over, the largest crop will be raised in this county (taken excepted) than for many years. So far as my information extends there will not be half a crop of tobacco raised in this county, but a large crop of corn, and a disposition on the part of the farmers to engage in stock raising.

Grey Woodson, of the Edloe, is in Louisville, which he will take in the races, though that was, by no means his business. Grey would not go that far to see a race, no sir, he is a good boy, was a better letter from infancy, and has not, thus far departed from his early training.

The wife of Capt. Elisha Baker, at South Carrollton, died since we wrote you. She was a long and patient sufferer, I am not well enough acquainted with the surroundings to say more than that she died of cancer, and her death was a great loss to her family and the community in which she lived.

On the 15th of May, near 12 o'clock, M. died the sister of your correspondent, Mrs. Phillis Ann Foster, she was the only sister of the first blood, and the first link of the chain severed in the family tie. She suffered long and patiently for nine weeks, her disease was emphysema of the lungs. She was 49 years 1 month and 12 days old. She leaves a large circle of relatives and friends, and a kind sister, a loving and devoted mother and wife.

SPIRITS.

A Dangerous Torpor.

Torpor or inactivity of the kidneys is seriously dangerous to those organs, since it is the precedent of diseases which destroy the substance and endanger life. This sluggishness may be overcome by stimulating them, an effect produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a general invigorant alternative, possessing diuretic properties of no common order. The impetus which this admirable medicine gives to their evacuating function counteracts any tendency to congestion which may exist in their tissues. Both they and their associate organ, the bladder, are invigorated as well as gently stimulated by the Bitters, which exerts a kindred influence upon the stomach, liver and bowels, and by strengthening the system, enables it to withstand malarial epidemics, to which when exposed it might otherwise succumb.

18-11.

105,000 Cabinet Organs.

In numbering the Cabinet Organs of their manufacture, the Mason & Hannigan Company has now reached No. 105,000, having actually made and sold early that number. They not only make the very best organs, but sell them at a low as they possibly can be afforded, even by manufacturers of their great facilities, which brings them at prices which are only a little more than the cost of the organs. Their prices are $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, $5.50, $6.00, $6.50, $7.00, $7.50, $8.00, $8.50, $9.00, $9.50, $10.00, $10.50, $11.00, $11.50, $12.00, $12.50, $13.00, $13.50, $14.00, $14.50, $15.00, $15.50, $16.00, $16.50, $17.00, $17.50, $18.00, $18.50, $19.00, $19.50, $20.00, $20.50, $21.00, $21.50, $22.00, $22.50, $23.00, $23.50, $24.00, $24.50, $25.00, $25.50, $26.00, $26.50, $27.00, $27.50, $28.00, $28.50, $29.00, $29.50, $30.00, $30.50, $31.00, $31.50, $32.00, $32.50, $33.00, $33.50, $34.00, $34.50, $35.00, $35.50, $36.00, $36.50, $37.00, $37.50, $38.00, $38.50, $39.00, $39.50, $40.00, $40.50, $41.00, $41.50, $42.00, $42.50, $43.00, $43.50, $44.00, $44.50, $45.00, $45.50, $46.00, $46.50, $47.00, $47.50, $48.00, $48.50, $49.00, $49.50, $50.00, $50.50, $51.00, $51.50, $52.00, $52.50, $53.00, $53.50, $54.00, $54.50, $55.00, $55.50, $56.00, $56.50, $57.00, $57.50, $58.00, $58.50, $59.00, $59.50, $60.00, $60.50, $61.00, $61.50, $62.00, $62.50, $63.00, $63.50, $64.00, $64.50, $65.00, $65.50, $66.00, $66.50, $67.00, $67.50, $68.00, $68.50, $69.00, $69.50, $70.00, $70.50, $71.00, $71.50, $72.00, $72.50, $73.00, $73.50, $74.00, $74.50, $75.00, $75.50, $76.00, $76.50, $77.00, $77.50, $78.00, $78.50, $79.00, $79.50, $80.00, $80.50, $81.00, $81.50, $82.00, $82.50, $83.00, $83.50, $84.00, $84.50, $85.00, $85.50, $86.00, $86.50, $87.00, $87.50, $88.00, $88.50, $89.00, $89.50, $90.00, $90.50, $91.00, $91.50, $92.00, $92.50, $93.00, $93.50, $94.00, $94.50, $95.00, $95.50, $96.00, $96.50, $97.00, $97.50, $98.00, $98.50, $99.00, $99.50, $100.00, $100.50, $101.00, $101.50, $102.00, $102.50, $103.00, $103.50, $104.00, $104.50, $105.00, $105.50, $106.00, $106.50, $107.00, $107.50, $108.00, $108.50, $109.00, $109.50, $110.00, $110.50, $111.00, $111.50, $112.00, $112.50, $113.00, $113.50, $114.00, $114.50, $115.00, $115.50, $116.00, $116.50, $117.00, $117.50, $118.00, $118.50, $119.00, $119.50, $120.00, $120.50, $121.00, $121.50, $122.00, $122.50, $123.00, $123.50, $124.00, $124.50, $125.00, $125.50, $126.00, $126.50, $127.00, $127.50, $128.00, $128.50, $129.00, $129.50, $130.00, $130.50, $131.00, $131.50, $132.00, $132.50, $133.00, $133.50, $134.00, $134.50, $135.00, $135.50, $136.00, $136.50, $137.00, $137.50, $138.00, $138.50, $139.00, $139.50, $140.00, $140.50, $141.00, $141.50, $142.00, $142.50, $143.00, $143.50, $144.00, $144.50, $145.00, $145.50, $146.00, $146.50, $147.00, $147.50, $148.00, $148.50, $149.00, $149.50, $150.00, $150.50, $151.00, $151.50, $152.00, $152.50, $153.00, $153.50, $154.00, $154.50, $155.00, $155.50, $156.00, $156.50, $15
